cannot choose a better night to visit Grover's FORD'S THEATER.-This evening will be reenacted the great moral drama of "East Lynne; or, the Elopement." This attractive piece crowded this temple of fashion last evening, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather To-morrow night Kotzebue's great play of "The Stranger; or, Misanthropy and Repentance," and "My Dress Boots."

CANTERBURY .- The performances at this weil patronized place of amusement were of the highest order. Mr. W. A. Wray completely astounded the audience as a magician, comedian, pantomimist, musician and vocalist, and Mons Deverney proved himself the greatest contortionist and acrobat of the age. Go and see the wonderful performers. SANDERSON'S MINSTRELS. - This famed company of performers will be on hand tonight, at Odd Fellows' Hall, 7th street, for the purpose of catering to the wants of the amusement-loving public. Be in time to secure a good seat.

SUDDEN DEATH OF AN ODD FELLOW .- About 11/4 o'clock this morning, while the grand levee of Columbia Lodge of Odd Fellows was in progress at the hall on Seventh street, Mr. William Houser, of Excelsior Lodge, while standing on the payement in front of the door, was taken with a fit of apoplexy and fell. Some of those standing around immediately took him into the hall and sent for medical assistance, but in a very few minutes he was dead. The body was taken in charge by members of his lodge, who are waiting to hear from his relatives, who reside in New Holland, Lancaster county, Pa. The deceased was in his 31st year, and a machinist by trade, and hails from the abovenamed place. He came here from Baltimore about three years since, and has been working in the Arsenal. He is represented to have been a young man of good qualities, and had made a large number of friends here. He boarded with Mrs. Keys, at the corner of 1% and N streets, Island. In consequence of this sad occurrence, the festivities in the hall were brought to a sudden close.
